DEDICATION

Because I cannot measure the unselfishness of your sacrifices, nor the depth of your love;
Because you chided impartially and through conscientious efforts taught right from wrong;
Because you instilled honor, and molded character
with tender loving hands;
Because you prayed, and hoped, and feared;
Yet never complained;
Because you made me, in part, what I am today;
And, all in all, just because you are YOU –

Bobby,
Maybe at last we're going to graduate. Aren't we hoping. I can't say I'm sorry, but I will miss you and all our good times, and it's for sure we've had our share of them. I think you're one of the nicest friends a person could have. I hope that if we should go separate ways, we will still have occasions to have our good times.

Have you forgotten the night we came to see the "plays" but never made it. I should have known we'd never get that far.

Bobby, I wish you all the luck and success in the world.

always a friend,
Harriet
